

THE WAY WE GET BY

Sometimes all it takes is a handshake to change a life

a deeply moving film about life and how to live it. Beginning as a seemingly idiosyncratic story about the Bangor troop greeters - a group of senior citizens who gather daily at a small airport to thank American soldiers departing and returning from Iraq, the film quickly turns into a moving, unsettling and compassionate story about service, aging, loneliness, the realities of war and mortality.
